Very happy with the service Danni provided. I had a judgement on my credit file that should have been removed. My wife and I are purchasing a home and needed my credit file fixed to be able to go for finance.

Thanks fix my credit.

Frequently Asked Questions:

1. If I only have a small $200 vodafone default should I still bother as the default is less than your fee?

YES! It's not the size of the default, it's the fact you have one, even if you pay the $200 debt you are still going to be in the exact same position with bad credit! As paying the debt DOES NOT remove it!

2. Do I have to pay my default first before it can be removed?

If the listing is disputable then NO you do not have to pay it to have it removed. You will however have to settle the debt with the provider at a later stage.

3. Can you 100% guarantee that I can clean my file?

No. A listing can only be removed if it has been listed in error, or if the listing itself is disputable.

4. How long does the whole process take to remove bad credit?

Equifax allows a maximum of 30 days to have a response but this can vary on a case by case scenario.

5. If I purposely didn't pay my bills when I was younger can it still come off?

Yes in some cases, however only if there has been a breach in legislation prior to listing you.

6. Do you charge an admin fee?

No. Unlike most other competing companies out there, we only charge a one off fee only IF you are accepted for our services. Be careful you don't get sucked in to paying high administration fees that some companies charge for what we do at no cost!

7. Is a Credit Default and a Court Judgement the same thing?

No. A default is listed by the provider straight to the credit reporting agency themselves. A Judgement is listed through the courts.

8. Do I have to do anything?

Our company advocates on your behalf, the most you may be asked to do is sign where needed.
